MURDER CHARGE

A Sunshine woman collapsed in the Melbourne City Court on Monday when she faced a charge of murdering a man.

Mrs. Loraine Dorothy Sullivan, 23, has been charged with having murdered Laurence Sullivan, 29, costing clerk, at his home in May St., Sunshine, on December 4.

Police allege that Sullivan was stabbed after an argument.

Mrs. Sullivan collapsed while Mr. W. J. Cuthill SM was speaking to her. She was helped from the court, and returned 30 minutes later, when she was remanded to appear in the City Court tomorrow (Friday). Bail was refused.
