

Sunshine Advocate

Woolstore blaze

Sunshine Advocate 8th August 1973 Page 3

Woolstore blaze

DAMAGE estimated at $1 million was caused by a fire at a Braybrook woolstore last Monday night.

The woolstore, owned by Kreglinger Australia Pty. Ltd., was reduced to ashes within an hour.

MILLION DOLLAR FIRE Facelift

DAMAGE estimated at $1 million was caused by this blaze at a Braybrook woolstore.

The fire, which broke out late on Monday night, August 6, reduced the woolstore to ashes within an hour..

No one was injured. The woolstore was owned by Kreglinger Australia Pty.

Ltd. and after the fire employees had a monumental job in cleaning up.

Thousands of half-burnt wool bales littered the site - the smell was over-powering.

Local photographer Barry Searle took this dramatic shot at the height of the fire.

for 100 houses

TENDERS were recently called for the painting of 100 railway houses in Sunshine, council was told at its last meeting.