

Sunshine Advocate

Sydenham man killed in smash, Claude Daniel Bayley, Aged 50

17th June 1965 Page 3

Sydenham man killed in smash

Sydenham resident, Mr. Claude Daniel Bayley, of Buckingham St., was killed instantly in a three-car smash at Diggers' Rest last Saturday night.

Mr. Bayley would have celebrated his 51st birthday last Sunday.

During his 17 years at Sydenham, his sparkling personality endeared him to a wide range of friends throughout the district.

He is survived by his wife, three sons, John, Robert and Peter and a daughter, Sue (Mrs. D. Baldock).

His funeral will be held at the Keilor cemetery, following a service at St. Augustine's Catholic Church, Keilor today (Thursday) at 11 am.

★

For the second time in a few months, the Syden-ham Store and Post Office has changed hands, and the new post master will be Mr. Jack Kemp, formerly of Shepparton.

The present owners of the store and post office, Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Jones, and their daughter Mrs. D. Clark are moving to East Keilor.

★

After several days in hospital, the president of the Sydenham Tennis Club, Mr. W. Harlock, of Taylors Rd., St. Albans, has returned home.

Although still confined to bed, it is hoped that Mr. Harlock will be up and about soon.