

Sunshine Advocate

Boy drowns, Stephen Grant Delaney, Aged 4

Sunshine Advocate 27th January 1971 Page 3

CHILD DROWNS

A four-and-a-half year old Sunshine boy drowned after falling into Kororoit Creek on Monday.

He was Stephen Delaney of Mayo St., South Sunshine.

A friend said that Stephen slipped on loose earth on the creek bank and fell into the water.

Sunshine police who attended the scene following a call by the parents of the boy's friend, said that the water was 5ft. 6in. deep in parts.

Police used artificial respiration to try and revive the boy, but their efforts were unsuccessful.