Sunshine Advocate

Man killed by rail truck, Joseph Faure, Aged 35

10th July 1958 Page 4

Man Killed by Rail Truck

Joseph Faure, 35 years, of 14 Collie Street, North Melbourne, died in Footscray Hospital on Tuesday evening following an accident at the railway siding at Albion on Tuesday afternoon.

Police were told that Faure, an employee at Darling's mill, was caught between two trucks loaded with flour which were being moved by pulley.

He was a married man, with three children.