

Fatal Accidents To Cyclists

Two cyclists injured in similar accidents died at the same hospital early today. They were William Gibson, 28, Kellaway Street, Maribyrnong, and Charles Baker, 28, Roland St., Coburg.

Gibson was struck by a Tramways bus in Rosamond Road, Maribyrnong, last night, and Baker collided with a Tramways bus in Lorimer St., South Melbourne, while riding to work at 7 a.m. today. Gibson died at Royal Melbourne Hospital within a minute or two of the accident to Baker, who lived only an hour and a half after admittance to the hospital.
