Local Man Electrocuted

On December 22nd a member of a well-known and highly respected Sunshine family, Leslie Thomas Ellingsen, received fatal injuries when he came into contact with electricity at Nobels, Deer Park. The late Mr Ellingsen, who was unmarried, was 46 years of age, and was the son of the late Mr and Mrs Albert Ellingsen, and brother of Albert, Ethel (Mrs V Whittaker), Ada (Mrs A. Barnett), Jack, Emily (Mrs A. Dodson), George, Fred, Charles, Edith (Mrs F. Willaton) and Con.

The funeral took place on Christmas Eve to the place of interment, the Footscray Cemetery. The Rev. H Michael (Methodist) conducted the service at the graveside. Ernest W. Jackson, of Williamstown, had charge of the burial arrangements.
