

DEAD ON THE LINE.

FATALITY NEAR SUNSHINE.

The body of a man named William White was found on the railway line between Sunshine and West Footscray this morning. There was a hole in the head, and it was evident that deceased had been killed by a passing train. It is presumed to be a case of suicide. White was committed to the Receiving Home by the Footscray Bench on July 4 last, but was subsequently discharged. The body was removed to the Morgue by Constable Wellwood, of Sunshine.

Messrs Charles Forrester and Co. and Sydney C. Arnold and Co. announce that they have received instructions to sell several valuable city properties on Thursday, September 22. The list, which appears in our section column, includes the Port Phillip Club Hotel, Fardon etc.