SERIOUS ACCIDENT

Mr Jack Rogers, of Sunshine, had a most unenviable experience last Saturday night. When driving home from Frankston with some relatives a motor cycle, which, it is alleged, was without lights, appeared suddenly from the ti-tree at the side of the road, and not noticing it in the rain Mr Rogers' car collided violently with it. The lady who was riding pillion was fatally hurt, dying some time after reaching hospital. Her male companion is still in hospital, believed to be suffering from a broken leg.
