

FATALITIES AND ACCIDENTS

THE KELLOR MOTOR FATALITY.

The unfortunate circumstances attending the death of Mary M. Mahon, aged 35, who was thrown out of a buggy at Kellor on 5th ult., through the horse attached to the vehicle in which she and a lady friend were seated taking flight at a passing motor car and bolting, capsizing the buggy against a fence, were yesterday inquired into by the District Coroner (Dr. Cole). Formal evidence of the occurrence having been given, the Coroner said he was of opinion that it had been accidentally caused, and returned a verdict accordingly.
