
Boy Drowned in Kororoit Creek

The Kororoit Creek claimed another victim when a school-boy, Peter Kakiczerskal of Blanche Street, West Sunshine was drowned when he slipped into the creek on Tuesday.

He was watching other boys swimming when a rock on which he was sitting gave way.

First Const. Dave Power applied artificial respiration after he was called to the scene and until an ambulance arrived.

The boy was attended by two doctors at hospital but he failed to respond.
