

Sunshine Advocate

Man's body on railway line

12th June 1958 Page 1

MAN'S BODY ON RAILWAY LINE

Shockingly mutilated over about 200 yards of the St. Albans railway line, a man's body was found yesterday evening by railway officials at Albion.

This morning, Sunshine police were still trying to secure identification.

It is believed the man had alighted from a train at Albion and was walking towards the Dunkeld Avenue area at North Sunshine. This is a short cut taken by local residents.
