Sunshine Advocate

Elderly man dies from burns, James Hall, Aged 84

16th January 1957 Page 2

ELDERLY MAN DIES FROM BURNS

James Hall, 84, of William Street, St. Albans, died in Footscray District Hospital on Tuesday after suffering several weeks from severe burns.

Deceased had been living alone. He apparently lit a fire in his stove to cook breakfast and later had a heart turn and collapsed on to the stove. He was found by his daughter and conveyed to hospital.