

Mr. J. Smith, of Government Road, Maidstone, had the misfortune to lose his house and all his belongings one night last week as the result of fire. Mr. Smith, who is one of Maidstone's most popular residents, was out visiting when the fire occurred and was amazed to find his home gone when he arrived back.