

SERIOUS RAILWAY ACCIDENT.

A serious accident this morning befel a wharf laborer named Henry Nylan, 20 years of age. He was crossing the Williamstown railway line near Spencer-street, when, in trying to get out of the way of one train, he did not notice another coming from the opposite direction. It struck and knocked him down, and on being picked up it was found that his right leg and left foot were very badly crushed. The poor fellow was removed to the Melbourne Hospital, and it is feared that his right leg at least will have to be amputated.

National Library of Australia

<http://nla.gov.au/nla.news-article150296729>